Madison banks receive a total of $200,000 of the new and smaller size currency early this morning and by 11 o'clock have distributed almost half of it. The new bills are only two-thirds the size of the old currency and the new design and printing will aid in the detection of counterfeit notes. The new currency has a picture of Washington on every $1 bill with an ornate ONE on the reverse. The $2 bill has pictures of Jefferson and Monticello; the $5 has Lincoln and the Lincoln Memorial, while the $10 bill has pictures of Hamilton and the U.S. Treasury Building. The banks report there is still almost no demand for $2 bills. One dollar and five dollar denominations lead the demand. . . M. Y. Oilar, assistant manager of Frautschi's Inc., is spending the week at the Chicago market and Richard Newman is visiting the Grand Rapids, Mich., market.

The average partner knows precisely what he wants — but isn't quite sure. The defenders in today's hand, playing in a world championship last year, were sure and knew how to say so.

East took the ace of clubs and noted that his partner had led the lowest club in his hand. Since experts use an unusually low card to ask for a switch to the lowest side suit, East knew he was expected to return a diamond.

Using the same "suit preference signal," East returned the ten of diamonds, an unusually high card, asking for a switch to the highest side suit.

West ruffed, cashed the ace of hearts and continued with a heart to the king. East returned the nine of diamonds to give his partner another ruff, and West obediently led another heart. East ruffed, and led a third diamond for West to ruff.

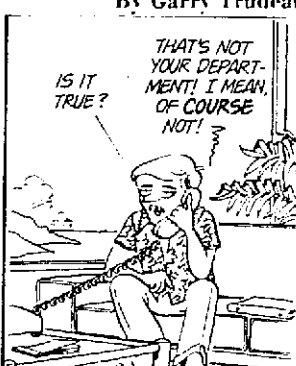

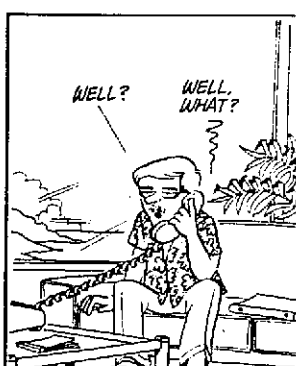

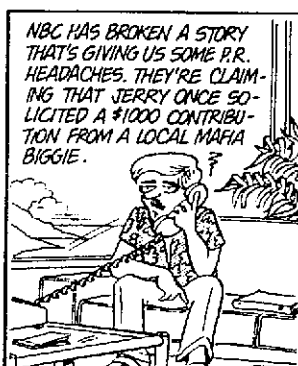

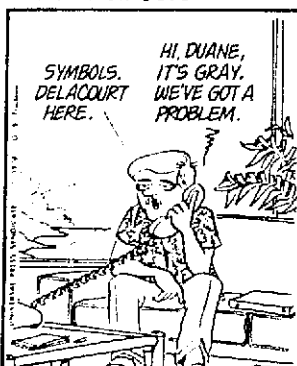

South was down four before he got started!

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes. You hold: Spades-A K Q; Hearts-J 10 7; Diamonds-K 8 7 2, and Clubs-Q 5 2. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one diamond. The hand is too good for a jump to two notrump; and, besides, you have no heart stopper. If partner's next bid is one heart or one notrump you will gladly bid three notrump; if his rebid is one spade, you will jump to three notrump with less assurance.
